

Language Course and School Program in Hamburg

[aubiko  e.V.]

1st to 14th July 2018

Intensive Summer Course German in Hamburg including trips to Lübeck, Bremen, Lüneburg and Berlin

You can't use the German summer any better!

Hamburg is the second biggest city of Germany, a port city with multicultural flair. The inhabitants of Hamburg are proud of their "most beautiful city of Germany" because of all the parks, canals, sights and attractions, shopping facilities and activities. We would like to invite you to learn German intensively with fun and pleasure. Together with you we will explore as much as possible of Hamburg and its surrounding. We will also visit Husum, Lübeck, Bremen, Lüneburg and Berlin and experience a tour across the tidal mudflats of the North Sea. You will have the unique possibility to get in touch with classes of two German schools and get to know the German students better. The German students will arrange a program for you and you will be able to experience real German school days!

The youth hostel we will stay at is located near the train station but still very quiet and secure. You are able to do a lot of sports. We will spend an amazing time for sure! We will enjoy city rallies, daytrips and make unforgettable experiences.

Your Accommodation in Hamburg

Most of the time during the language course we will be accommodated in the youth hostel of Bad Oldesloe which is located beautifully. The surrounding is quiet, secure and offers a lot of leisure time facilities. The station near the hostel has a good connection to Hamburg and Lübeck. The youth hostel Bad Oldesloe is situated at the outskirts of Hamburg and provides a volleyball field, table tennis and table soccer etc... There is a barbecue area and a canoe station right in front of the house. Moreover, there is an indoor swimming pool close by. And the very best? You will have half board and enjoy delicious food!
